

nomadux

OUTSOURCING

One of our fastest emerging services is the development of the trend towards home-based working, which has gained increased popularity during the global COVID-19 pandemic, and is forecasted to grow exponentially in the future. Our core services are listed next.

The key function of the Nomadux organization is to provide various outsourced business services (BPO) to companies across a wide range of industry sectors.

We provide home based agents for companies looking to hire remote workers to undertake various functions that don't necessarily need to be office based, therefore reducing their costs and enabling them to focus on their core business activities.

Nomadux are experts in providing virtual home-based talent for your business, in various industry sectors, and has the systems, management expertise and experience to drive high performance and results through remote teams, and producing excellent and highly profitable results for our clients.

Staff training, appraisals, recruitment, dismissals, administration. Nomadux can function as your external Human Resources department, giving you the option to outsource either the entire function, or parts of HR that you do not want to manage in -house.

Managing the client's sales staff, or employing the staff directly and producing and implementing marketing plans. The team at Nomadux holds a strong background in the area of sales.

We prepare sales plans, commission schemes and any other sales- related tasks, and can also implement them by managing your sales staff and accompanying them in the field, monitoring their progress.

Direct employment of client staff through Nomadux

To remove client's employment and labor law liabilities.
Nomadux can offer different staff employment models that are cost-effective and will help your organization significantly reduce its employment costs.

Payroll administration

Simple administration and payments to staff for a monthly administration fee, or the direct employment and payment of staff by Nomadux, allowing your organization to focus on the core competencies of the business.

Nomadux can manage the entire search and selection process using our global data-base and other recruitment tools, helping you to find the best possible staff to enable your business to grow.

Consulting

Diagnosing and evaluating businesses, identifying issues and opportunities, and implementing effective solutions.

Nomadux can offer a complete diagnostic of your business, and further consulting services if necessary, and help you implement effective strategies to improve your business and bottom line.

Project Management

Managing specific client projects, and implementing new processes & procedures.
Nomadux can assist your organization in various projects, overseeing the delivery and implementation of projects to improve your business.

Sales, marketing, customer service. Nomadux can help improve staff productivity and morale, offering high-quality trainings.

CPA accounting

From one of our associate partners. Nomadux has many contacts of excellent CPA accountants that are readily available to provide an excellent service to your organization with the option of outsourced accounting services.

Legal Services

From one of our associate partners. Nomadux has an experienced legal team.

We work with our clients in helping to prepare them staff contracts, providing labor advice and any other issues that they may need help with such as searching for office space, obtaining business patents, and establishing corporations.

nomadux

OUTSOURCING